THE [Numb. 892.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, June 10, 1762.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

PETERSBOURG, February 23, 1762.

The following is the Copy of a Declaration delivered a few Days ſince, by the Emperor's Order, to the Imperial, French and Swediſh Miniſters reſiding here.

DECLARATION.

HIS Imperial Majeſty, who, upon his happy Acceſſion to the Throne of his Anceſtors, looks upon it to be his principal Duty, to extend and augment the Welfare of his Subjects, ſees, with extreme Regret, that the Flames of the preſent War, which has already continued for 6 Years, and has been for a long Time burthenſome to all the Powers engaged in it, far from tending now to a Concluſion, are on the contrary gathering freſh Strength, to the great Misfortune of the ſeveral Nations; and that Mankind has ſo much the more to ſuffer from this Scourge, as the Fortune of Arms, which has been hitherto ſubject to ſo many Viciſſitudes, is equally expoſed to them for the future:

"Wherefore his Imperial Majeſty, compaſſionating, through his humane Diſpoſition, the Effuſion of innocent Blood, and being deſirous, on his Part, of putting a Stop to ſo great an Evil, has judged it neceſſary to declare to the Courts in Alliance with Ruſſia, that, preferring to every other Conſideration, the firſt Law, which GOD preſcribes to Sovereigns, which is the Preſervation of the People intruſted to them, he wiſhes to procure Peace to his Empire, to which it is ſo neceſſary, and of ſo great Value; and at the ſame Time to contribute, as much as may be in his Power, to the Re-eſtabliſhment of it throughout all Europe.

"It is in order to this, that his Imperial Majeſty is ready to make a Sacrifice of the Conqueſts made by the Arms of Ruſſia in this War, in hopes that the allied Courts will, on their Part, equally prefer the Reſtoration of Peace and Tranquility, to the Advantages which they might expect from the War, and which they cannot obtain but by a Continuance of the Effuſion of human Blood. And to this End his Imperial Majeſty, with the beſt Intention, adviſes them to employ, on their Side, all their Power towards the Accompliſhment of ſo great, and ſo ſalutary a Work."

Tranſlation of the Anſwer given by the French Court to the Declaration of the Emperor of Ruſſia, which was delivered the 23d of February to the Miniſters of France, Auſtria, Sweden, and Saxony, at Peterſbourg.

THE King maintaining with Regret, theſe ſix Years paſt, a twofold War for his own Defence and that of his Allies, has ſufficiently manifeſted, on every Occaſion, how much he abhors the Effuſion of human Blood, and his conſtant Deſire to put an End to ſo cruel a Scourge. His perſonal Diſintereſtedneſs, the Steps which he thought could be taken conſiſtent with his Dignity, and the Sacrifices which he did offer, in order to procure to Europe the deſirable Bleſſings of Peace, are ſure Pledges of the humane Sentiments with which his Heart abounds. But at the ſame Time his paternal Tenderneſs, which makes the Happineſs and Preſervation of his Subjects a Duty to him, cannot make him forget the firſt Law that God preſcribes to Sovereigns, even that which conſtitutes the public Safety, and fixes the Condition of Nations and Empires, Fidelity in executing Treaties, and Punctuality in performing Engagements to their full Extent, preferably to every other Conſideration.

"'Tis with this View, that after having given ſo great Examples of Conſtancy and Generoſity, his Majeſty declares that he is ready to liſten favourably to Propoſitions for a ſolid and honourable Peace, but will always act in the moſt perfect Concert with his Allies; that he will receive no Councils but ſuch as ſhall be dictated to him by Honour and Probity; that he ſhould think himſelf guilty of a Defection, in lending a Hand to ſecret Negociations; that he will not tarniſh his Glory, and that of his Kingdom, by abandoning his Allies; and that he reſts aſſured each of them will, on their Part, faithfully adhere to the ſame Principle."

Naples, Feb. 5. We work with the greateſt Diligence on the new Redoubts that are to defend this Harbour. The Intrenchments on the Coaſts are carrying on with equal Ardour; from whence it is inferred, that the Miniſtry foreſee that they ſhall be ordered by the Catholic King to take Part in the War between England and Spain; and as, in that Caſe, Sicily will be equally expoſed, Orders are ſent to the Viceroy to provide for the Security of the Coaſt.

Cadiz, Jan. 26. A Kind of Carcaſſiers are building here to take or ſink the Engliſh Bomb-Veſſels.

Liſbon, Jan. 26. The Propoſal lately made by the King of Spain to our Court was to the following Effect: "I do not pretend to aſſert any of my Claims to the Crown of Portugal, nor in the leaſt to impair the good Underſtanding that ought to be kept up between neighbouring Powers; but being forced to enter into a War againſt Great-Britain, I am obliged to require his moſt Faithful Majeſty, not to receive my Enemies Ships into his Ports; and if he doth not think himſelf ſtrong enough to hinder them, I offer him the Aſſiſtance of my Arms," &c.

Vienna, Feb. 20. It is ſaid that the Czar hath propoſed to our Court, as the Baſis of Accommodation, the Ceſſion, by the King of Pruſſia, of the County of Glatz, and the Principality of Schweidnitz, which join to Bohemia.

Peterſbourg, Feb. 19. The Corpſe of the late Empreſs having lain on a Bed of State to the 5th of this Month, was put into a Coffin in Preſence of the Emperor and Empreſs, then transferred to a ſuperb Throne, covered with a rich Canopy, and there expoſed for ten Days longer, ſurrounded by the Lords and Ladies, who were regularly relieved at ſtated Times. On the 16th at 7 in the Morning, the firſt Signal was made by 3 Pieces of Cannon, when the Guards, the Artillery, and the Officers of the Houſhold, repaired to their reſpective Poſts. At 9 the ſecond Signal was given, when the Proceſſion began to form. At the Third Signal, which was given at 11, the Minute Guns began to fire from the Fortreſs and the Admiralty. The Chamberlains of their Imperial Majeſties removed the Corps from the Hall of State to the Funeral Carr, which was drawn by Eight Neapolitan Horſes, covered with black Velvet. The Emperor and the Empreſs, in deep Mourning, preceded by the Nobility and Privy Council, followed on Foot. The Proceſſion arrived at the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul, in the Fortreſs, about Noon, where the Corpſe was placed upon a moſt magnificent Catafalque, richly ornamented with Statues, Painting, &c. After the uſual Service, the Archbiſhop of Novogorod pronounced a moſt affecting funeral Oration; when the whole of this melancholy Ceremony was concluded by a triple Diſcharge of 101 Pieces of Cannon, at 3 in the Afternoon.

Madrid, March 9. The Preparations for War, tho' haſtened as much as poſſible, ſtill continue. Their Immenſity is the Cauſe of their Continuance: The Apparatus is formidable, and gives a high Idea of the intended Expeditions. The War-Office has juſt iſſued final Orders concerning the March and Deſtination of all the Troops; and a Day is named on which all the Regiments are to be at the Places where the different Armies are to be formed. The General Officers have alſo received their final Orders, and the Time is fixed for their repairing to their Poſts. Many who were in this City have already ſet out for Zamora; but we know not yet where the Operations of the Campaign will commence.

At Seville, they work with incredible Diligence in the Arſenal and Foundery, in preparing ſeveral different Trains of Artillery. There is an incredible Number of Artificers employed, who relieve one another daily: A great Number of Waggons, loaded with Cannon-Balls and other Stores, have already been ſent away.

Verſailles, March 27. The Nobleſſe of Provence have offered the King a conſiderable Sum, towards augmenting the Marine: The Town of Salon, in particular, makes an Offer for the ſame Uſe. The Corporation of Bourdeaux gives 50,000 Livres.

Peterſbourg, March 11. Baron Goltz, Colonel, Aid de Camp, and Chambellan to the King of Pruſſia, having arrived here the 4th Inſtant, with his Pruſſian Majeſty's Compliments to their Imperial Majeſties, was preſented on Sunday Morning both to the Emperor and Empreſs, and met with a moſt gracious Reception. He had the Honour afterwards to dine in public with their Imperial Majeſties.

Yeſterday Mr. Keith, Envoy Extraordinary, and Plenipotentiary from the King of Great-Britain, had the Honour of entertaining his Imperial Majeſty at Dinner at his Houſe, with the two Dukes of Holſtein, and ſeveral other Perſons of the firſt Diſtinction.

Genoa, March 10. Letters from Spain mention, that the Portugueſe Neutrality is far from being certain: What adds Weight to this opinion is, that an Engliſh Squadron, is bringing over 12,000 Men to the Aſſiſtance of Portugal; and that one of the three Spaniſh Armies, the Inſtant they declare for the Engliſh, will attack them. France and Spain will have 175 Ships of the Line at Sea this Spring, without reckoning Frigates; and in all the Ports of both Monarchies they are building as many Ships as will always keep this number compleat. It ſhould ſeem then, that the Engliſh are at the End of their Conqueſts, and that their Enemies will now triumph in their Turn. All the Provinces, after the Example of Catalonia, are raiſing new Regiments at their own Expence. The Levies of Troops go on extremely briſk; the young Men eagerly enter into the Army, but greatly diſlike the Sea Service.

Naples, March 9. We have ſeen with Surprize, that the Engliſh who were ſettled here have left this Country by Order from their Court; which is a Proof that, notwithſtanding the Neutrality we have hitherto ſtrictly obſerved, and the good Offices we have done that Nation, they look upon us as their Enemy; upon which Account we continue repairing our Fortifications with the greateſt Diligence. We have received upwards of 100 Waggon Loads of Palliſadoes and Chevaux de Frize, to protect our Coaſt againſt a Deſcent.

LONDON, March 25.

There are Letters from Paris which confirm the Account given of the private Execution of ſome Perſons of Diſtinction, and that they were ſuppoſed to be ſome General Officers.

March 27. We are informed, that the Court of Spain has been given to underſtand, that if they attack Portugal, a Britiſh Fleet will lay the City of Naples in Aſhes.

March 30. The Eſperance Privateer of St. Maloes, of 8 Guns, and 75 Men, is taken by the Brilliant Frigate, and brought into Plymouth.

They are very buſy at the Tower in ſhipping Stores for Gibraltar, notwithſtanding the great Quantity that has lately been ſent there.

On Saturday laſt 5000 Gallons of Britiſh Brandy were exported to Martinico: This is the firſt Entry that ever was made from hence for that Iſland.

March 31. We hear that the Hon. Major Gen. Barrington is expected to be ſent for immediately from Ireland, where he is lately gone, in order to be appointed Governor of the Iſland of Martinico, as a Reward for his very gallant Behaviour, when that Iſland was attacked by our Troops in the Beginning of the Year 1759, and for his vigorous Proſecution of the Attack afterwards made upon the Island of Guadaloupe, General Monckton having already a conſiderable Government in N. America.

April 2. The Jewellers at Berlin were employed laſt Month in making the moſt curious and rich Pruſſian Order of the Black Eagle that ever was ſeen, which is to be preſented to the Emperor of Ruſſia.

The Audacieux, a French Privateer of 10 Guns, beſides Swivels, and 105 Men, taken by the Coventry Frigate, after a Chace of 40 Hours, and carried into Kinſale, is pierced for 14 Guns, carries 30 Oars, was but a few Days off the Stocks, and a Fortnight from Breſt, and had taken nothing.

Extract of a Letter from Naples, March 2.

" Our Marine will ſoon be upon a good Footing. M. Francis Ferbicella, a Sicilian, one of the ableſt Seamen in Europe, has the Direction of it; a ſixth Xebeque is on the Stocks; all our Ships and Galleys are equipping with great Diligence; and a great Quantity of Timber is cutting down in the Foreſts of Calabria.

" The Shore between the Bridge of Magdelaine and Poſilippus is covered with Baſtions and Intrenchments, and the Fortreſs of Oeuf is well furniſhed with Artillery."

The Allies have repaired the Fortifications of Munſter, furniſhed them with Artillery, augmented the Garriſon, and are forming a Flying Army of Horſe, Dragoons and Huſſars, who will take the Field as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit.

April 3. His Majeſty's Ship Diana, William Adams, Eſq; Commander, from Virginia, is arrived at Portſmouth; ſhe came out the 4th of March with ſeveral Ships under her Convoy, but cannot learn when or where ſhe parted with them.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, March 26.

" Six Thouſand Danes are already encamped within a League of Lubeck; and we are informed, that before their Arrival, a Ruſſian Party was ſeen at a little Diſtance from that City. This made the Magiſtrates reſolve to keep the Gates ſhut during almoſt two Days and two Nights, and to double the Guards and the advanced Poſts. The King of Pruſſia likewiſe hath demanded of the Magiſtrates of Lubeck, the young Fellows of the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, who were enrolled among his Troops, and made their eſcape into their City; but they refuſed to deliver them up. Mean while, the Clouds that threaten Denmark ſtill increaſe; and ſcarce any Hope is left, that an amicable Accommodation can be accompliſhed. The Number of Recruits that are raiſing for the Service of Denmark exceeds Belief. All the young Fellows enter Volunteers. We are aſſured, that the Militia of Denmark will be embodied; and that a Body of Volunteers is to be raiſed at Altena, equal in Number to the Body of Huſſars, which is almoſt complete; their Number amounting already to 1800. The King of Denmark hath publiſhed a general Amneſty in Favour of all Deſerters from his Troops, with Leave for them to join any Regiment they pleaſe. It is thought that by the End of April he will have an Army of 50,000 Men ready to take the Field."

NEW-YORK, May 31.

Saturday Afternoon His Majeſty's 46th Regiment arrived here from Albany. And, Several Veſſels with Connecticut Provincial Troops arrived here ſince our laſt.

Yeſterday the Captains Doran and Tallman arrived here in 20 Days from Antigua: By them we have Advice, that a Number of Negroes belonging to that Iſland had concerted a Scheme in order to become their own Maſters, but the Plot being diſcovered, they were taken proper Care of.

The following is a Liſt of the Ships that arrived from England with Admiral Pocock, viz. Namur, 90 Guns, Vice Admiral Pocock; Valiant 74; Hampton Court, 74; Belleiſle, 70; and Rippon, of 60 Guns.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.

In a late Letter from London, by the laſt Ships, a Gentleman writes as follows:

" The Operations of the War are carrying on with their former Vigour; and a great Fleet is juſt ſailed, in all Probability, to attack the Spaniards in ſome of their diſtant and moſt valuable Settlements, which muſt quickly bring them to Reaſon. ——Affairs in Germany, by the Death of the Czarina, are like to take a favourable Turn. In that Part of the World all Sides are ſufficiently tired of the War, where, it is generally agreed, the next Campaign will be the laſt. Thus all Things go on as well as we could reaſonably expect. It is true, the protracting the War, at any Rate, at a Time when we thought ourſelves at the Eve of a Peace, ſomewhat alarmed us; but we are nothing daunted, and unanimous to proceed with Spirit; having the Satisfaction to know, that our Enemies have far greater Reaſon to wiſh for a Period to the Calamities of War than we."

On Tueſday laſt arrived here the Snow Two Friends, Capt. Ireland, from the Iſle of May, by whom we are informed, that a French 40 Gun Ship, bound to the Eaſt-Indies with Stores, ran aſhore on St. Vincents, one of the Cape de Verd Iſlands, and was entirely loſt: That Admiral Saunders, with 18 Sail of the Line, 3 Fire Ships, 5 Bombs, and as many Frigates and Sloops as made his Number about 36 Sail, was cruiſing in the Gutt of Gibraltar, the 18th of March, for the Toulon and Carthagene Squadrons, having received Advice of their Junction, and being at Sea; their joint Force ſaid to be 12 Ships of the Line, and 5 Frigates: That they had Advice at Gibraltar, that the Engliſh Veſſels in Spaniſh Ports were diſcharged; and thoſe at Malaga, with the Engliſh Conſul, expected daily at Gibraltar: And that the Bellona Frigate, on her Paſſage from England for Gibraltar, off of Bayonne, fell in with and took a French Merchantman, of 24 Guns, belonging to Marſeilles.

With Captain Ireland came Paſſenger Captain Byvanck, of the Brig John, of New-York, who was taken on his Paſſage for the Coaſt of Guiney, by a Privateer Brig from Martinico, between the River Senegal and Cape Verd.

By Captain Hazelwood, from Martinico, we learn, that when Admiral Pocock left that Iſland, he had about 12 Thouſand Land Forces with him; but that he was to touch at Antigua and St. Chriſtophers, where it was ſaid, he would get a Reinforcement of between two and three Thouſand Men more, white and black, and expected a Regiment of Blacks from Jamaica: That General Rufane was left at Martinico, with about 5000 Men: And that two large French Ships, bound to the Miſſiſſippi, and a Spaniſh Ship of 16 Carriage Guns, have been lately carried in there by our Men of War.

In a Letter from Martinico, dated May 11, it is ſaid, " The Inhabitants here ſeem now quite " ſatisfied with their Condition; and indeed they " have Reaſon, for they are indulged in every " Thing they deſire, and I believe never were ſo " happy before."

His Excellency General MONCKTON ſailed from Martinico for Antigua the ninth ult. from whence he was ſoon to ſail for his Government of New-York.

The Sloop Rachel, Captain Walker, from Bermuda was taken by a Spaniſh Galley at Turks Iſland, and burnt.

ANNAPOLIS, June 10.

Laſt Friday being the Anniverſary of the Birth of our moſt Gracious Sovereign King GEORGE the Third, when his Majeſty entered into the 25th Year of his Age, the ſame was obſerved here with the uſual Solemnity; and in the Evening his Excellency our Governor gave a Ball at the Council-Houſe, where there was a ſplendid Appearance of Ladies, and a great Number of Gentlemen.

On Tueſday laſt Week, one William Wright, an old Man about 75 Years of Age, attempting to ſwim acroſs Magothy River, near the Head, to fetch a Canoe, which ſome ill-natur'd Boys refuſed to bring over to him, ſunk, and was Drowned when he had got almoſt over. He told the People whom he left on the Shore, that tho' he had not ſwam for Thirty Years, they ſhould ſee that he could ſwim yet. His Body was taken up ſoon after.

On Wedneſday the 26th of May, Richard Croſby, alias Dew, was Executed at Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, for the Murder of old Mr. Wirt, on the Road, as formerly mentioned.

2d June, 1762. JOHN SHUTE.

THE Managers of the Subſcription for making the River Patowmack Navigable for Small Craft, from Wills's-Creek to the Great-Falls, have Reſolved to poſtpone their Meeting at Frederick-Town to the 26th Day of July next. It appeared neceſſary to prolong the Time for ſeveral Reaſons: Firſt, Some of the Gentlemen who had determined to aſſiſt in making an accurate Survey of the River, in marking and pointing out the neceſſary Work to be done, and in calculating (upon the Spot) the Expence of every particular Undertaking, cannot poſſibly attend ſo ſoon as the Time mentioned in their firſt Addreſs to the Public: In the next Place, After more mature Deliberation, the Month of May was thought too early, as the River is generally high at that Seaſon, beſides it's being more liable to be ſwelled by the Rains then, than in the Months of June and July, when the Waters are not only for the moſt part low, but may reaſonably be expected to continue in a ſettled equal State for ſome Time together, a Circumſtance, without which it would be difficult to ſurvey and examine the River with the neceſſary Accuracy: Add to theſe, The Oppoſition the Deſign met with from a Gentleman who alarmed the Public, by placing in their View a Crowd of Difficulties, which exiſted only in his Deſcription, by confounding vaſt Deſigns, which would impoveriſh Nations to effect, with a Work, which, tho' of the greateſt Uſe and Importance to the Public, may yet be effected at a very moderate Expence: In a Word, by writing with great Ingenuity upon a Subject he had not well conſidered. The Managers have now the Pleaſure to inform the Public, that Subſcriptions are filling very faſt, and that People in general, but more eſpecially in the Back Counties, and thoſe bordering upon Patowmack, diſcover ſo much Alacrity in promoting the Affair, that there is not the leaſt Doubt but a Sum will be raiſed, ſufficient to carry on the Work by the Day now appointed for their Meeting. Fully ſatisfied of this, they take the preſent Opportunity to deſire ſuch as are inclinable to become Undertakers, to be very particular in their Examination of every Part of the River, to calculate the neceſſary Expence as they proceed, to inform themſelves of every Difficulty, and how to remove it; and when thus prepared, to meet the Managers at Frederick-Town in Maryland, on the 26th Day of July, as before mentioned, that their Obſervations may be compared with thoſe in the Hands of the Managers, in order to prevent further Delays, and that they may be enabled on both Sides to enter into Contracts without Danger of Confuſion or Impoſition; and thoſe who ſhall then appear to have been aſſiduous and exact in their Enquiries, may depend upon receiving a ſuitable Recompenſe.
